DIY Scavenger Hunt List

Enjoy our DIY scavenger hunt list and help your kids create new treasures out of common household trash.

Tin Cans

Help your toddler develop language and social skills by transforming your old tin cans into a telephone.

https://childhood101.com/literacy-spot-20-tin-can-telephone/

Soda Cans

Take fun beverages to a whole new level by reusing your old soda cans to create cool new coasters with the kids.

https://www.theidearoom.net/diy-soda-can-coasters

Paper towel rolls*

Let your kids zoom in with their imagination by helping them craft these neat binoculars made from old paper towel rolls.

*Substitute toilet paper rolls for paper towel rolls https://www.redtedart.com/tp-roll-binoculars-poppy-cat/

Plastic bottles

Teach your kids crafting, recycling, and hand-eye coordination all in one go by creating this fun

http://krokotak.com/2014/06/empty-plastic-bottles-game/

Cereal boxes

Repurpose your old cereal boxes and teach the kids to build a lovely little gift box to hold their other DIY treasures.

https://stuffyoucanthave.blogspot.com/2010/10/cereal-boxes.html

Milk cartons

Preserve nature in multiple ways by teaching your kids how to craft a fun, decorative birdfeeder out of your old milk and juice cartons.

https://www.redtedart.com/juice-carton-crafts-owl-bird-feeder//

Magazines

Let the kids loose on your old magazine pile and help them create these stylish personal notebooks.

https://abeautifulmess.com/2012/03/mini-magazine-notebook-diy.html

Newspaper

Make sure your kids are ready for their next outdoor adventure by helping them craft these awesome party hats from old newspapers.

http://mayamade.blogspot.com/2008/07/party-hats_22.html

Egg cartons

Take your discarded egg cartons and help your kids transform them into fun little ladybug friends.

http://onelittleproject.com/egg-carton-ladybugs/

Broken crayons

Use some crafty magic to transform color into light by helping the kids take their broken crayons and mixing them into colorful candles.

https://www.brit.co/color-block-candles/